BLOODHOUNDS ON TRAIL OF MURDERER

Music Lovers of City Given Rare Treat

Mrs. Mattison B. Jones, the President, Expressed Great Satisfaction at Size of the Audience—Practically Every Seat Taken in the Auditorium

A large and appreciative audience greeted the artists who appeared on the first program of the Glendale Music Club, which was presented last evening to music lovers of Glendale at the high school.

Practically every seat in the auditorium was taken when Mrs. Mattison B. Jones, president of the club, appeared on the stage to greet the guests. Mrs. Jones expressed her satisfaction at the size of the audience, saying that she had been warned that there wouldn't be a baker's dozen at the concert, because there were three dances scheduled in Glendale for last evening. She added that if the audience present constituted a baker's dozen, it was the most generous baker's dozen she ever saw.

Mrs. Jones explained that this club was a branch of the National Federation of Music Clubs, whose aims are to make America the musical center of the world, to bring music into the lives of all the people of the country, and to promote American music. For these reasons the Glendale Music Club chose a program of American music for its first offering and for these reasons, also, it has pledged itself to present at every one of its programs one number of real worth composed by an American.

It was significant that four of the seven composers represented on the program are residents of Southern California, which is fast becoming known as a musical center. These four were Gertrude Ross, Los Angeles, composer-pianist, whose songs have attained nation-wide fame; Charles Wakefield Cadman of Los Angeles, whose Indian music, especially, is widely known; Harold Webster of Los Angeles, whose sonata, exquisitely interpreted last evening by Alexander Saslavski, violinist, and Mertianna Towler, pianist, won the prize given by the National Federation of Music for the best American sonata submitted for violin and piano in 1917; and two numbers by Helen Livingstone, also of Los Angeles.

Poetic, dainty and naive were the "Art Songs of Japan," interpreted for the audience by the beautiful voice and fine musical intelligence of Jessie MacDonald Patterson, with the composer, Gertrude Ross, at the piano. The little songs, the composer explained, were written from Japanese traditions and poems of 300 and 600 A. D. They typify the art of Japan, for they are suggestive, not weighed down with detail. She culled the themes from Japanese folklore and from songs played for her on a native instrument by a Japanese woman. The words of one of them, "Fireflies," were adapted from the prose of Lafcadio Hearn.

The words of Mrs. Ross's Desert song-cycle were written by a young woman who lived on the desert. Both music and words are poetic and faithfully descriptive of their themes, "Sunset in the Desert," "Night in the Desert," and "Dawn in the Desert," and were sympathetically interpreted by Miss Patterson. "Dawn in the Desert" has been sung the length and breadth of the land by Schumann-Heink, and is known as far as England and Australia.

Harold Webster's prize sonata was exquisitely played by Alexander Saslavski, violin virtuoso, and Mertianna Towler, pianist of unusual gifts. Equally satisfying were Saslavski's interpretations of the first movement of Helen Livingstone's beautiful sonata in A minor, "In the Highlands," by the same composer, and "The Call of the Plains," by Rubin Goldmark of Colorado Springs.

The Glendale Music Club is to be congratulated on giving to Glendale music lovers an evening of such rare pleasure.

At the close of the program, an informal reception was held for the artists, at which fruit punch was served by prominent women of Glendale.

OPTION CLOSED ON BRUESS TIRE PLANT

Mr. Bruess who has had great experience as a manufacturer of automobile tires on a large scale, and who has been negotiating for 68 acres of land west of the Southern Pacific tracks and south of Broadway, to be used as a site for a big manufacturing plant, announces that he has closed an option for the land. This is a practical assurance that the $5,000,000 plant he has in mind will become a reality. In his talk before the local chamber of commerce he stated that 15 months would be required to build it and that when completed it would employ between 2500 and 3000 men, many of whom would be experts who would be brought from the east and located in the community which the company will establish in the neighborhood of the plant. In addition to the tire factory Mr. Bruess has in mind other factories to be established by his corporation or others to whom sites will be sold, and two such projects mentioned were a cotton mill for manufacturing the products of Arizona and Imperial Valley fields, and a rubber reclamation plant where many articles of hard rubber would be made.

REMOVAL OF TREES ON BRAND BOULEVARD

S. Berman, who recently purchased from John W. Usilton residence property at the southeast corner of Brand and Elk street, has secured a permit to remove from the parkway on Brand opposit his property, seven black acacia trees, on the ground that their removal would improve the appearance of the frontage from a business viewpoint, inasmuch as few trees now remain in the parkways on Brand.

In presenting the request of Mr. Berman, City Manager Watson called attention to an order issued by the board of trustees several years ago, granting permission to any property holder, on application to the street superintendent, to remove any of the palms from the parkways on Brand boulevard for at least three or four blocks north of Colorado. South of Colorado there are no trees in the parkways on this thoroughare except a few groups, of which the seven mentioned in Mr. Berman's application form one.

LUNCHEON FOR P. E. O. OFFICERS

Mrs. Ed Lee of North Belmont street, was hostess Friday noon at a luncheon for officers and committee chairman of Chapter L., of the P. E. O. Colors of the order, yellow and white, furnished the motif for floral decorations, appointments and menu. The ladies for whom places were laid were: Mrs. Warren Roberts, Mrs. H. E. Bartlett, Mrs. Clyde Bott, Mrs. A. M. Huntt, Mrs. J. C. Huntley, Mrs. A. C. Read, Mrs. C. D. Lusby, Mrs. E. U. Emery, Mrs. F. Dickman, Mrs. A. L. Bryant, Mrs. A. W. Tower and the hostess, who was assisted in serving by her daughter, Mrs. Dorothy Weller. A social afternoon followed during which some matters of business were considered.

ATTRACTIVE PROGRAM AT GLENDALE THEATER

One of the attractions at the Glendale this evening is a preview of a high grade, two-reel situation comedy, "His Hansom Butler," featuring three stars, Harry Gribben, Eddie Barry and Helen Darling. All three will appear in person after the picture.

The feature picture of the bill at the Glendale today is "Hearts Up!"

Harry Carey is not only starring in "Hearts Up!" a story of San Francisco and the west, but he is also the author of this photodrama.

The story raises the question as to whether a lie is ever justifiable, playgoers being about equally divided on the question, Harry Carey is seen in a new kind of role in this play, which is one of the most entertaining photodramas of the year.

Tomorrow's program brings Harold Lloyd to the Glendale, in his joyous comedy, "Now or Never"; also Eva Novak in "Society Secrets"; the third episode of "The Son of Tarzan," the latest Pathe News and topics of the day complete the bill. The regular Sunday organ recital from 6:30 to 7:15 will be given by Mme. Clement.

The Sunday school board of the First Methodist church met in regular monthly session last evening, each member bringing sandwiches and one other article of food to the picnic supper, which they enjoyed together in the dining hall of the church.

Miss Alyce Byxbee Killed by Maniac

Police Dragnet Thrown Over Entire City in an Endeavor to Capture the Murderer—Victim Prominent in Fresno Society—Companion Escapes

(By International News Service)

SAN FRANCISCO, April 2.—Despite an all night search by the shotgun squad of the police department, the maniac who last night snuffed out the life of Miss Alyce Byxbee, pretty Fresno debutante, as she waited on Buena Vista avenue for her fiance to take her to a party at which she was to have been the guest of honor, was still at large today.

Buena Vista park, into which the crazed murderer escaped, was combed foot by foot for some trace of the man, but early today no trace had been found. A police dragnet was thrown out over the entire city and no effort was being spared to capture the man. Bloodhounds were also secured in an effort to follow his trail.

Miss Byxbee, with Miss Virginia Thompson, was walking on Buena Vista avenue near the park, awaiting the arrival of Arthur Dettman, who was to take them to the party in his machine. A man of foreign appearance and accent, approached and said:

"I need your help."

The girls took no notice of the remark, and he said in a louder voice, "Girlies, I'm lovesick; you must help me."

Thoroughly frightened, they began to run, and he whipped out a revolver. Four shots took effect in the body of Miss Byxbee, who crumpled to the pavement in a dying condition. Miss Thompson continued to run and the man sent three shots after her. None took effect and he hurled the revolver with such force that, striking her in the back, it knocked her to the pavement.

Miss Byxbee, who is prominent in the younger set in Fresno, was to have gone to her home there today, the party last night having been planned as a farewell. Dettman, her fiance, heard the shots and was one of the first to reach the scene. He carried the almost lifeless body of the girl he was to have married to a nearby house. She died almost immediately without regaining consciousness.

FANCY STUNTS AT BRAND'S AIR LUNCH

Twenty-seven aeroplanes came to rest in the landing field of L. C. Brand, at his foothill home north of Glendale, and safely delivered their passengers, who came in response to invitations from Mr. and Mrs. Brand to attend the elaborate one o'clock luncheon on Friday, served in their private clubhouse. Covers were laid for about 100 and all the local fields roundabout, March field, Long Beach, Mills and others, were represented, also there were many officers representing the aviation branch of the army and navy. There was quite a group of the persronal intimates of host and hostess who arrived in planes, including Mr. and Mrs. Willis Huntt, Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Sale, Mrs. Larry Peters, and Mr. and Mrs. Featherstone of auto fame. Mary Miles Minter and Ruth Roland, movey stars, were also of the company and came by the air route. Following the luncheon there was a program of fancy flying, some very pretty stunts being performed by Aviator De Lay. Mr. Campbell, another aviation expert, safely executed a parachute drop.

BROADWAY P.-T. A. FATHERS' NIGHT

An appreciative bunch of fathers responded to the invitation to enjoy Fathers' Night at the Broadway school, Friday evening, where a program of considerable interest was provided by the committee of arrangements of the Broadway Parent-Teacher Association of which Mrs. H. H. Jepson is president.

Mr. Upjohn from the county superintendent's office made the leading talk, his theme being "Visual Education." It was illustrated with lantern slides and he emphasized the advantage of pictures in the teaching of geography. Thus visualized, he claims, pupils gain a much better idea of the countries studied than they could possibly acquire from the text alone.

Mrs. Philips, secretary of the association, gave two piano numbers which were enjoyed as was also a recitation by a little boy of grade 2.

Superintendent R. D. White made a short talk on matters of interest to members of the P. T. A. and punch and wafers were served during the social half hour which followed.

WILLIAM S. HART AT PALACE GRAND

William S. Hart will be seen today at the Palace Grand in his latest and best picture, "O'Malley of the Mounted," a most thrilling tale of the great north woods.

Another feature on this excellent program is "Edgar The Explorer," a two-part special picture by Booth Tarkington.

Tomorrow brings Charlie Chaplin to the Palace Grand, in "The Kid," his latest six-reel feature picture that took a year to make. Little Jackie Coogan has a little something to do with the success of the picture, which is said to be "the greatest comedy ever made."

"The Kid" is shown at the Palace Grand on Monday and Tuesday, also.

"K. K. K." BRANDED ON HIS FOREHEAD

(By International News Service)

DALLAS, Tex., April 2.—This city is quiet today, after a night of rioting, in which members of the reorganized Ku Klux Klan participated.

Shortly before midnight, Friday night, 15 masked and robed members of the organization seized Alex Johnson, negro, from his home and carried him to a segregated spot in the suburbs of the city. The members gave the negro a short trial. He confessed to improper relations with a white woman in one of the leading hotels.

The clan then blindfolded the negro while he made entreaties for his life to be spared. The negro was then stripped and lashed severely 25 times. After the negro had been lashed and beaten until he could not stand, the letters "K. K. K." were branded on his forehead.

SLASHED GIRL ACROSS FACE

LAWRENCE, Mass., April 2.—Because the girl he loved, Cecilia Marone, 18, spurned his pleadings, Salvadore di Mura, assistant foreman at the Ayer Woolen Mill, drew a dirk from his shoe and slashed her across the face. The affair took place in the packing room in the presence of many girls and men. "No other man will love your pretty face now," he cried as he fled through the crowd and disappeared. The girl was taken to the Lawrence hospital, where it was said today that the scar would disfigure her for life.

VAUDEVILLE LOVERS HIGHLY ENTERTAINED

Lovers of vaudeville were highly entertained by the five acts put on by Manager Howe at the Glendale theater last evening.

Lloyd and Edwards, comedians, Roosevelt Baio, cornetist supreme, Dorothy Ray, dramatic impersonator, Paul Patton, Pasadena's most noted baritone, and last, but not least, Mike Garibaldi, mimic and imitator of fowls of the barnyard and beasts of the jungle these were the amateur acts and professional try-outs that delighted the large audience.

This vaudeville feature will be a part of the program every Friday evening at the Glendale theater.

Tabernacle In Course of Construction for Revival

Building Will Be Completed Next Week by Volunteer Labor—Women to Provide Lunches for the Workers—Meetings Begin April 17

The construction of the big tabernacle for the John E. Brown union evangelistic meetings, which will begin on the 17th, is under way and will be completed next week by volunteer labor.

Mr. Waterhouse, the advance man for Dr. Brown, is on the job and will direct the large force from the churches and other volunteers, when the real fun begins Monday morning. Everyone who can drive a nail, wield a saw, carry lumber or the water bucket, is invited to assist. It will take several days but by the end of the week everything will be in readiness for one of the greatest revival meetings Glendale has ever known. All of the evangelical churches of the city are back of the effort and there is no doubt that the great tabernacle will be the center of most successful meetings.

A number of committees are already busy with preparations for the coming of Evangelist Brown. Special meetings of these committees will be held between this date and the 17th, and all will be in readiness to begin with a full head of steam two weeks from Sunday.

One of the features of this building enterprise will be that a large committee of women will furnish dinners to all the workmen, at the First Methodist church, each day of the construction period.

All men who will be glad to give their time for this enterprise are asked to report Monday, or Tuesday if impossible, to give Monday, at the tabernacle grounds, corner of Harvard and Orange streets.

SPITZER CASE IN SUPERIOR COURT

The case of Emil Spitzer, arrested in Glendale, on a charge of bigamy last January, will come up for trial in the superior court on May 13.

Shortly before Christmas Spitzer opened an agency here for a piano factory, whose headquarters are in Los Angeles. He brought with him a woman he had married without having obtained a divorce from his real wife, who resided in Los Angeles, and whose suspicions of him led her to have his movements watched by detectives. This investigation brought about his arrest as a bigamist. He was also charged with purchasing an expensive ring from a local dealer with a bogus check. The ring was recovered by the jeweler.

G. U. H. S. BASEBALL TEAM LOSES, 2 TO 1

The league game between Glendale and South Pasadena, the second game of the season for the local team, came off Friday afternoon at South Pasadena and resulted in a score of 2 to 1 in favor of South Pasadena. Wesley Aageson pitched the first six innings for the home team and did excellent work for a comparatively new player. Dale Wood pitched the last three, striking out six men. Lefty Herman was ruled out as a pitcher on the ground of being a professional.

PREACHER UNDER SERIOUS CHARGES

LINCOLN, Neb., April 2.—Charged with adultery and violation of the Mann act, Rev. Eugene Ackley, a United Brethern preacher, who moved to Broken Bow, Neb., from Wisconsin the first of the year, is held in jail at Broken Bow today. The woman in the case is Zylpha Mae Wallace, whom the minister introduced as his daughter. Suspicions were not aroused until Ackley filed a charge of insanity against his "daughter" when she announced her intention of marrying John McGinnis of Broken Bow. Ackley later withdrew the charge and was preparing to leave town with her when arrested by the sheriff.

Probe Into Sinking of the Steamship Governor

Inspectors Declare They Will Prefer Formal Charges and Conduct a Trial if the Responsibility Can Be Fixed—Examine Members of Both Crews

SEATTLE, April 2.—When the $1,500,000 liner Governor was rammed and sunk by the freighter West Hartland, off Port Townsend, Captain Harry Martin was piloting the passenger vessel. Captain Martin and three others, one an agent for the Pacific Steamship Company, boarded the Governor at Victoria late Thursday night. The habits and activities of these men in the Canadian city, before the Governor arrived probably will be investigated thoroughly by Captain Donald S. Ames and Captain Harry C. Lord, local United States steamboat inspectors, during their inquiry today into the cause of the collision.

The inquiry into who was to blame for the wreck opened late today behind closed doors. Officers who were on watch on the Governor testified. Today members of the crew of both vessels were before the investigators.

If it is found that someone was to blame, the inspectors declare they will prefer formal charges and conduct a trial. If responsibility can be fixed on no one the findings of the hearing will be discarded.

It has now been almost certain established that ten persons, seven passengers and three of the crew lost their lives.

The few passengers who were on deck at the time of the collision, declare the pilot of the governor mistook the West Hartland's lights for those on shore and discovered his mistake when too late to avoid a crash.

While grim tragedy marked the arrival here of the West Hartland with its load of survivors, there were many amusing incidents. One of the loudest complaints heard was from a man, whose name must remain unannounced, who had lost six bottles of perfectly good Canadian whisky.

"If only Dodo is safe," wailed one woman as she reached a Seattle hotel. It seems Dodo is a fox terrier that was shipped by express to the east from Los Angeles.

H. Webster, a waiter, lost his life while attempting to save the lives of Mrs. W. W. Washburn and her two daughters.

The Washburn stateroom was in the direct path of the West Hartland as she plowed into the side of the liner. Imprisoned by wreckage the mother and her children were forced to remain inside. John Frederickson, an oiler, and Webster discovered their plight and started chopping away the wreckage. They succeeded in dragging Mrs. Washburn out, but the children could not be reached. The mother, however, refused to leave her children and crawled back into the state room.

As the last lifeboat was leaving the side of the Governor, Webster was urged to go with it, but refused to leave the woman and her children.

After the boat had gone about 50 feet the Governor went down.

GERMANY MUST PAY TO FULL EXTENT

By GEORGE E. HOLMES
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, April 2.—On two broad questions of international policy, the attitude of the Harding administration already has been made clear to M. Rene Viviani, special envoy to the United States.

One of these is that the United States will stand solidly on the principle that Germany was responsible for the horrors of the world war and that she must pay for it to the full extent of her ability.

The other is that the United States has finished playing the role of a financially benevolent big brother to the whole world and is now beginning to take stock of her assets. Looming large among these assets are the debts aggregating some $10,000,000,000 which European governments owe the United States and which they have as yet given no indication of paying.

ONLY A NEWSPAPER GUY

I see a man strut through thte jam in a hall,
Take a seat with the speakers and chat with them all;
"Is this Harding?" I ask, "that the crowd thus defies?"
"No," says some one, "he's one of those newspaper guys."

I see a man pushing his way through the lines
Of cops where a fire brightly glimmers and shines;
"Chief, O'Connor?" I ask, and a fireman replies:
"Oh, no, why that's one of those newspaper guys."

I see a man start on the trail of a crook,
And he scorns all assistance and brings him to book;
"Detective Burns?" I inquire, some one scornfully cries;
"Burns? No! he's just one of them newspaper guys."

I see a man walk through the door of a show;
Where great crowds are blocked by the sign, S. R. O.
"Is that Nat Goodwin himself, that no ticket be buys?"
Well, hardly, he's one of those newspaper guys.

I see a man knock on the President's door
And the sign, "No Admittance," completely ignore;
"Is that Morgan, that privacy's rights he denies?"
"Morgan? Shucks! It's just one of those newspaper guys.

And some day I'll walk by the great streets of gold,
And see a man enter, unquestioned and bold;
"A saint?" I'll inquire, and old Peter'll reply:
"Well, I should say not! he's a newspaper guy."

HORSESHOE CLUB ATTRACTS VISITORS

Editor of the Glendale Press:

On coming to California from British Columbia some months ago to spend the winter months, I selected Glendale for my winter home and I certainly am not sorry I did so and regret my time to leave has come. I may return next year to your state. I am told when one comes the second time he sticks for good. If all get the same impression I do, I don't wonder. I early joined the Glendale Horseshoe and Tourist Club, which is certainly composed of a fine set of gentlemen. They make the stranger feel at home from the start to the finish and they had 25 or more of us "foreigners" in their club this season. I hope they will miss us as much as we will them. Glendale and the club for me. Yours, H. ROBERTSON.

CAT OF HIGH DEGREE IN WHITE HOUSE

(By International News Service)

CHICAGO, April 2.—"Laddie," the noted White House dog, will either have to demonstrate that he does not share the natural canine aversion to felines or wear a chain after next June.

Some time in June Gamaliel, who is a cat of high degree, is going to arrive at the White House, chaperoned by his mistress, Miss Pearl Harding, 13 years old. And if Laddie starts anything with Gamaliel it will be the canine hoosegow for his, for Pearl could not get along without Gamaliel, and certainly would not permit him to be molested by any bumptious Airedale.

A rather tall little girl, with serious eyes and blond curls, came timidly into the living room of the Harding home at No. 4846 North Kimball avenue. She was cuddling a white cat in her arms.

"Mother says I'm to be interviewed," Pearl Harding, 13, said primly after she had sat in her "baby chair" that stands in the corner of the room and cuddled the cat still closer. "Will it start soon?"

Upon being reassured she was quite content to talk about the White House, the honor of which, as cousin of the President, she is to share when she graduates from the eighth grade at the Hibbard school in June.

"The President, you see, isn't like what most Presidents are supposed to be like. He doesn't think he's 'it.' And he says he'd just as soon talk to me as to any minister of state. He just says that to be nice and make me feel at home, of course. How does he make me feel? Well, just comfortable inside, that's how."

"When mother and Everett, my big brother, who is going to be the President's assistant secretary, and I went to Washington to the inauguration we had such a nice time. Washington is so clean and it's such a comfort to go out some place and have your face clean when you get there."

A very, very serious little girl indeed!

"And when the President asked me to come and live with him and Mrs. Harding I didn't know what to say. I thought and thought, and I couldn't think of anything that'd sound right, so I kept still. He laughed and said he hoped I'd accept the invitation, because he was going to be pretty lonesome in that big house after all the girls and boys he knew in Marion, and then I knew that I wanted to go. I told mother and she said that I could after I finished the eighth grade. I'm going to bring Gamaliel there with me. I don't know what I'd do without Gamaliel!"

Gamaliel, the cat, attempted to show the world and Pearl that he could do nicely without them by stalking majestically from the room at this juncture.

"I don't know what kind of clothes I'll get to go there to live. Just the same kind I always wore. I guess, Middies and blue skirts for school and a silk dress for Sundays, and of course I'm going to bring my party dress."

She rushed from the room and came back bearing triumphantly a dainty pink satin 'party dress" with a silver lace overskirt and little puffy sleeves. It would seem it is the pride of this utterly unspoiled little girl's life.

Downstairs in front, while she posed for a picture, the entire neighborhood's young generation came to worship at her shrine. Little boys begged to hold her traveling bag—a gift of the Hamilton Club to the future belle of the White House—and when the little boy who lived next door was accorded the privilege he beamed with pleasure.

A 13-year-old boy passed the house where 50 children were "watching" and walked on with a great show of indifferencee. His face was shining as with recent washing and his hair was "slicked" back carefully. Pearl blushed and pretended not to see.

"Who was that?" she was asked.

"He thinks he's my beau," she said, with an air of fine disdain eminently fitting to the future first young lady of the land.

DEAN OF SYRACUSE UNIVERSITY KILLED

(By International News Service)

SYRACUSE, N. Y., April 2.—J. Herman Wharton, dean of the school of business administration of Syracuse University, was shot and killed today by Holmes Beckwith, an instructor and head of the eligibility committee of the same school, who then ended his own life with a bullet.

The shooting occurred at 9:45 o'clock this morning in one of the rooms of the school of business administration.

The theory advanced by Chancellor Day of the university and by Frank Malpass, Onondaga county district attorney, is that Beckwith was discovered by Wharton in the act of committing suicide and that Wharton interfered and was himself shot in the struggle that followed.

Beckwith is said to have been unpopular with university students and it is claimed a petition was being circulated in the student body asking that no reengagement contract be tendered him for next year.

THE USUAL RESULT

The real estate firm of Moore & Riley used the Classified Ad. columns of the Glendale Daily Press to advertise a grocery store for sale.

Early the next morning a buyer appeared with a copy of the last issue of the Press in his hand, to inquire about the business advertised. By 11 o'clock the same morning the grocery store had changed hands and the purchase money was in the pocket of the seller.

AUTOMOBILE CLUB LIKE CALIFORNIA'S

Des Moines, Iowa, is going to have an automobile club as near like the Southern California organization as it will be possible to make it, according to word brought to this part of the state by Wm. G. Hale, managing editor o the Des Moines Evening Tribune and business manager of the Register.

Mr. Hale stopped over in California on his way home from Honolulu for the purpose of seeing if local highways are as scenically beautiful as publicity has painted them. He says they are. However, he is strongly in favor of adapting some of the Hawaii motor vehicle laws to conditions in the United States.

For instance, he points out that at Honolulu auto licenses are issued only for a period of six months instead of a year, and that these licenses are immediately revocable if the car owner transgresses a law. He said that this goes far to check careless driving on the tropical isle. Furthermore, every motorist in Honolulu who applies for license to drive an automobile must take a bonafied examination given by an accredited government official. In this examination the applicant is required to drive a machine up the mountain side, kill the engine and start again, besides some other little stunts which tend to prove that he is capable of handling a car under all conditions.

Des Moines already has an automobile club, but, according to Mr. Hale, is not nearly so active as the automobile club of Southern California in the matter of giving service throughout a large number of departments, such as the theft bureau, the insurance department, the touring bureau and the legal department. Mr. Hale declares that it is his intention to start a campaign in the newspapers and among his personal friends for the up-building of the automobile club of Des Moines, using the South ern California club as an exam'p'e.

P. E. CROSSING AT GARDENA

A communication from City Manager Watson to the board of trustees gave interesting correspondence with the chief engineer of the Pacific Electric railway relative to the matter that the city has had under consideration, of a crossing over the Pacific Electric tracks just north of the Southern Pacific right-of-way in order to transfer the northbound traffic from the west to the east roadway of Brand boulevard, or an alternative crossing at Gardena avenue. The communication states:

"In response to this letter received under date of the 25th instant, copy in duplicate of easement for highway purposes across the Southern Pacific right-of-way at Gardena. This easement besides containing the usual reservations to maintain and operate railroad tracks thereon, etc. contains further conditions to the effect that the city agrees to construct and maintain such roadway crossing at its own cost and expense and that the city will install and pay the cost of maintenance of automatic flagman at this crossing if automatic flagman is deemed necessary at any time or is ordered by the railroad commission of the state of California. The easement is also contingent upon approval by railroad commission.

"Upon investigating the deed by which the Pacific Electric acquired the private right-of-way in the middle of Brand boulevard extending through the Richardson estate, I find that the deed granting this right-of-way contains in substance the following:

"'The party of the first part reserves the right to lay out streets across said premises at such points that he may see fit in the subdivision of his adjoining property and the party of the second part will thereupon make proper crossing at grade on and across the said strip of land to accommodate said street.'

"It might be well to call the Pacific Electric company's attention to the above reservations and suggest that the reservation in regard to constructing and maintaining this crossing be changed to the effect that the railroad company will construct and maintain such crossing over and between its tracks and on either side thereof and that the city construct and maintain the balance thereof; also the matter of maintaining automatic flagman at this crossing and as to whom should pay the cost thereof, might be left to the railroad commission.

"Inasmuch as there should be no delay in acquiring and improving this crossing, I would suggest that the city attorney be instructed to place this matter formally before the railroad commission as I understand that will have to be done before the crossing can be legally established."

The above communication was referred by the board to City Attorney Shaw, with instructions to lay the matter before the state railroad commission of a permit to establish such a crossing, and also secure a ruling on the conditions proposed by the Pacific Electric railway.

B. G. SUTHERLAND MAKES STATEMENT

"That 'familiarity breeds contempt,' is especially true where automobiles are concerned," is the statement of B. G. Sutherland, local representative of the Liberty and Gardner cars, in commenting on recent disastrous garage fires.

"Everyone who drives an automobile, or in any way uses gasoline, should be aware of the danger and destructive power of gasoline mixed with air.

"Five gallons of the ordinary grade of gasoline used in automobiles or motor trucks will make 8000 cubic feet of gas, which, if ignited, expands 4000 times. One gallon of gasoline mixed with air and compressed is equal to about 83 pounds of dynamite.

"Gasoline should be stored and used only in very small quantities as a rule, and then only be handled by experienced employes who thoroughly realize its dangerous possibilities. Gasoline is so volatile that it will vaporize when exposed to the air when the temperature is as low as 15 below zero. This vapor is three times as heavy as air and therefore seeks the lowest levels and, unless there is very good ventilation wherever gasoline is used, the vapor may accumulate in pickets or depressions in the floor and remain there with all its explosive power for months."

GLENDALE'S NEXT CITY ELECTION

Some one remarked not long ago that elections appeared to be the chief diversions of Glendalians. We have just had a spirited election to choose trustees for the high school and a spiritless election to defeat most of the bond issues, and now we have another in sight, viz.: An election to replace the officials who will automatically go out of office because of the adoption of the city charter. This election will take place Tuesday, June 28. At that time it will be necessary to elect a city council composed of five members and a board of education of five members, a city clerk and a city treasurer. These officials when elected will assume office July 5. Under the provisions of the charter the three candidates for the city council and the three candidates for the board of education who receive the highest number of votes will serve until 1925, and the other two elected until 1923. The next city election following the one in June will take place the second Tuesday in April, 1923.

If the suggestion made by Trustee Lapham at the board meeting Thursday evening is acted upon, citizens will have an opportunity to again vote for a swimming pool, and also for funds to complete the purchase of Kenilworth park on June 28.

Keep your eye on small opportunities. They sometimes grow.

OLDSMOBILE FOUR GREAT CLIMBER

O. F. Meyer, 721 East Broadway, Glendale agent for the Oldsmobile car, is naturally proud of the performance of these machines at Long Beach the other day. Only those who have climbed to the summit of Signal Hill know the difficult task that the Oldsmobile undertook.

The following account of this demonstration is taken from the Long Beach Daily Telegram:

Demonstrating the hill - climbing ability of the new Oldsmobile four, C. Curtis Smith of the firm of Smith & Falkenstein, Oldsmobile representatives for Long Beach and vicinity, yesterday piloted a party of newspaper men to the top of Signal Hill Friday in one of the new model machines. Starting at the foot of the Cherry street hill, the Olds, under the expert guidance of Mr. Smith, ascended the steep incline, rounded the sharp curves and landed at the top without the necessity of touching the gear shift lever. The Signal Hill climb is the bugbear of many a motorist endeavoring to display the climbing powers of his car, and is a favorite testing ground for demonstrators whose cars are able to "make the grade." Few six-cylinder cars are able to go over the crest of the hill without shifting into intermediate. The Oldsmobile Four, however, accomplishes the feat with ease and with power to spare when the long grade is completed.

In addition to the wonderful ability to negotiate stiff pulls the new Olds possesses many other redeeming features, according to Mr. Smith. One of its outstanding characteristics is its lack of vibration. At 50 miles an hour it shows less vibration than any other four-cylinder car and many sixes. The well balanced crankshaft and lightweight pistons are largely responsible for this feature.

Possessing remarkable compression the car can be brought to a dead stop on a steep down grade with the gears set in high, a feat no other can do, according to Mr. Smith. Most motorists when attempting to come down grades on compression are forced to go into at least second and often low.

The new firm's determination to make its service department a feature of its business is already bringing results, Mr. Smith said yesterday. Starting with one mechanic in the service department, it has been necessary to enlarge the staff to three with indications that a still further enlargement will be necessary.

LOT SOLD ON ALEXANDER

The sale of a lot on Alexander street to Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Bode is reported by the C. E. Schimmelfeng Company. The Bodes, it is said, wish to sell their Orange street property and build on Alexander. Mrs. Hardwicke of Long Beach is negotiating with the same firm for a lot in Glendale as she thinks she prefers the foothills to the beach.

A motor-car clock has been invented which never has to be wound up. It runs from power obtained from the batteries used for lighting the car-lamps. So little current is required to work the clock that it uses in a year less than is required to light a four-candle-power lamp for an hour.

NOW IS THE TIME TO ERECT HOMES

The man who owns a piece of property today can render no greater service to his community, his country or himself than to build a house on it. Business buildings are needed, it is true, and those who are erecting them are assuring themselves of a profitable investment as well as increasing the value of surrounding property, but one of the greatest needs of today is for more homes—moderate homes, places where families of small incomes can live comfortably and within their means.

This is just as true of the rest of the United States as it is of Glendale, but the need for more homes in Glendale is brought to our attention every day. Strangers are calling every day at the office of The Glendale Press to see if anyone is advertising a house for rent. Hundreds now living in various parts of Southern California are anxious to come here to live if they can find suitable quarters. Glendale is growing perhaps faster than any other community in the United States or the entire world. It is a healthy growth, too, for the people who are coming here in nearly all cases have money to invest. If not, they are industrious, hard-working people, who represent the very cream of America's citizenry. They form a substantial base for the great place that this is indubitably destined to become.

But these newcomers must have places to live. If they cannot find homes in Glendale they will go elsewhere and this community will lose valuable prospective citizens.

It is truly amazing to the man who returns to Glendale after an absence of several years, or even several months, to note the building activity here. But, despite this, there should be more of it. Every person who owns a lot should build a house on it if such a project is humanly possible. He should do this not because it is a patriotic, a public-spirited or a humanitarian thing to do—although it is a profitable thing to do. There can be no income from idle land, even though it is constantly increasing in value because of neighboring improvements. If a lot has a house on it an income is possible as soon as the dwelling is completed.

If you have the money, build. If you haven't enough to build your own home, help in the construction of apartment buildings by lending your money to finance such propositions.

The man who cannot see his way clear to build for himself should invest his savings in mortgage bonds, the proceeds of which will be used for the erection of apartment buildings. There is no safer investment and the time is opportune. The country has weathered the crisis, proving its stability. This should give increased confidence and stimulate immediate activity in building. The cost of building has receded from 20 to 30 per cent below the peak of 1920 and further appreciable reductions are very unlikely; on the contrary, when a keen demand for materials develops, a stiffening of prices may be expected. Labor is plentiful today and when building begins in earnest the labor slack will be taken up. This, therefore, is the best time for building we are likely to see in years—not only because of the demand for houses, but because of the profit and general economy of building now.

WHAT THE SIXTY-SIXTH CONGRESS DID

The Outlook, New York, presents the following very clear and concise statement of the achievements of the Sixty-sixth Congress:

"The Sixty-sixth Congress has passed into history. Just now it is being remembered for what it did not do rather than for what it did. It did not pass the budget bill. It did not pass the packer bill or the bonus bill or the cold storage bill or the coal bill or the reapportionment bill.

"It did, however, at the short session just closed, pass all the appropriation bills but one, also a tariff bill, properly vetoed by President Wilson, and an immigration restriction bill, which he allowed to die without his approval, and thus rendered his country a good service.

"In the passage of the appropriation bills Congress did some remarkable things. First, it provided for fixed residences in certain cities for our diplomatic agents. Second, it did practice certain measures of economy, as in cutting out a $10,000,000 appropriation for a nitrate plant. Third, it did one or two very silly things, the silliest being the free seed provision—that ancient abuse which comes up for much adverse criticism in the discussion of each agricultural appropriation bill, only to be followed by final favorable action on the part of Republicans and Democrats alike because 'there are votes in it.'

"The nearness to us of this short session puts into the background the great accomplishments of the Sixty-sixth Congress, such as the transportation, merchant marine, mineral leasing, and water power acts, and the Edge act, authorizing the formation of corporations to finance export trade. These really important measures form a list which will compare well with that of the Sixty-fifth Congress, with its enactments relative to the war."

TO DELIVER ADDRESS ON MEMORIAL DAY

(By International News Service)

WASHINGTON, April 1.—President Harding today accepted an invitation to deliver an address at the memorial day exercises at Arlington National cemetery on May 30. The invitation was extended by a committee of G.A.R. veterans, headed by Colonel John McElroy.

BEATING AROUND THE BUSH

"My latest customer was a diplomatic man," said the prosperous bootlegger.

"In what particular?" asked the genial prohibition officer.

"He opened negotiations by asking me if I had anything in stock that would create a little interest in a mince pie."

WHY?

Why can an alien come into this country and in eight months rake in $20,000,000 on a promise of impossible returns?

Why did Barnum become rich?

Why do honest men buy counterfeit money?

Why do persons bet on a horse which some "sure-thing" stranger says will win the race?

Why does the three-shell game continued to be a feature at county fairs?

Why do substantial business men buy "blue sky"?

Why will state insurance schemes always be with us?

Because Barnum was right!—Federation News.

YOUNG HUSBAND PROVES POOR COOK

(By International News Service)

BALTIMORE, Md., April 2.—This story has to do with a wage-earning young wife, who, after switching jobs with her equally young husband, balked and kicked for better food. One meal cooked by her husband was enough, according to Mrs. Mary Sheldon, 21 years, and she repented her agreement and quit.

Mrs. Sheldon agreed in court before Justice Joseph Ranft to go to work and make a living for the family if her husband, Edward Sheldon, also 21, would stay home, cook and take care of the baby.

After seeing her husband walking about the house with an apron tied around him, the baby on one arm and a bottle of milk in the other—well, she just couldn't stand it.

A few hours after the Sheldons had returned to their home following their interview with Justice Ranft the young husband started in on supper. Right there when they sat down to that meal together Mrs. Sheldon repented her bargain and determined she would not go on with it. The young wife forthwith hunted up Mayor William F. Broening at his home. To the city's chief executive she unfolded her troubles.

"I said cook," she told Mayor Broening, in the talk with "his honor," to whom she hurried from the supper table. "You just ought to have seen what he gave me to eat. If I am going to go out and make the living I've got to have food, not the kind of a meal he gave me," vehemently declared the young wife.

"And I just couldn't stand the sight of him contented to walk round with an apron tied around him and the baby on one arm and a bottle of milk in the other. I just can't go on with it and I came to you for advice."

The mayor sent Mrs. Sheldon to the state's attorney's office and there she saw Assistant State's Attorney Herbert O'Connor. Mr. O'Connor has the spirit of conciliation in large measure. He believes that a man and his wife should agree if there is any way in the world to manage it.

"Try his meals a little while longer," suggested O'Connor.

Mrs. Sheldon's eyes got big and her mouth opened.

Mrs. Sheldon's mouth shut again without any sound. She'd follow his advice. The expression on her face indicated she'd wait before she did anything further in the matter of prosecuting her husband, but she wouldn't eat his meals. No: she wouldn't do that.

"If you don't agree we'll find a man's job for him," O'Connor assured her.

"Maybe women are allowed to vote," snapped Mrs. Sheldon in answer to a question. "But that hasn't got anything to do with it. This is an upside-down arrangement, and I am not going to stand it. He says a woman in a house has a 'cinch' and that he wished he could spend the rest of his days in such a soft berth. Well, he won," came with some evidence of defiance from the young wife.

Just 12 hours after Mrs. Sheldon made the suggestion that she get a job and support the family while her husband did the housework Mrs. Sheldon had exercised the woman's prerogative and changed her mind. A quarrel took place and the young husband packed up his clothing and departed. Edward, "the model housewife," was later arrested at the home of his mother, and again faced Justice Ranft, who held Sheldon in $300 bail.

"I can't live with him, and I can't live without him," Mrs. Sheldon told Justice Ranft, while Edward, asked for a statement, looked sadly on and remained silent.

Thus a feminist metaphor, model 1921, was shattered.

TO GOVERN PUBLIC CAMP GROUNDS

Public camp grounds for motorists in Southtern California are causing an unusual amount of stir these days throughout the southern counties.

A big meeting is scheduled for April 12, at Bixby Park, in Long Beach, for the purpose of deciding how motorists, using public camping grounds, shall be governed.

This invitation was issued yesterday by the Automobile Club of Southern California in behalf of the cities in the southern part of the state.

Important recommendations for the uniform control of all camp grounds will be considered at the Long Beach meeting. These recommendations were drawn up at a meeting of the automobile club on March 23.

Representatives of more than 100 Southern California cities and delegates from the various chambers of commerce, together with representatives of the automobile club, will be present at the meeting next week.

Questions of sanitary control, time limit for a single period of occupation of a camp ground and the amount to be charged for its occupation, will be among the questions to be considered.

The manner or means of protection for camp ground occupants will be provided if the recommendations are accepted as they now stand. For instance, if any undesirables are found, their car number and names of the parties will be immediately transmitted to the automobile club of Southtern California and their records filed, so that if they apply for admission to another camp ground in the southern part of the state they will be refused admission, as their number will be immediately available.

It is suggested that a maximum of two weeks be allowed for any single visit and the number of visits will be subject to local control. Sanitary control will comply with the state law following that of the State Board of Health.

QUEER QUESTIONS BATTERY MEN ANSWER

Is the man who repairs and recharges storage batteries likely to be oppressed by the monotony of his job? "Not by a jugful," says Wm. Kuhn, of the Willard Storage Battery Service Station.

"Every day we are asked unusual and surprising questions, and we have to keep on our toes to answer them all in A B C language." For instance—

"How can a battery get hot when there's nothig i it but solution and lead plates?"

"Can I use dry cells for starting and lighting while you repair my battery?"

"Can I take my battery off my car and use it to run my electric fan?"

"Can you charge my battery while I wait? I know it's in good condition because I poured all the solution out of it and kept the box under the stove all winter."

"Can you fix my battery up? I run out of gas just outside the garage and used the starter to help run the bus inside. Now there seems to be something the matter with the current."

All of these questions seem sensible enough to the folks who ask them, and the battery man's ability to answer them without seeming to reflect on his customer's intelligence, is an important factor in his success.

CANADA CAL'S CHIRPS

"So you were in Saratogo?"

"Yes."

"And did you take the waters?"

'Of course. Couldn't get anything else."

The editor wrote it: "Women's fashions of the present day are daring." But the linotype operator, who had his own ideas on the subject, would insist on setting it "darling."

CAT IS NOT PROPERTY; CANNOT BE STOLEN

(By International News Service)

DENVER, April 2.—The cat may be sacred in Egypt, but old Tabby isn't even recognized as having property value under the common law of this land, according to a decision rendered by Magistrate Bray in police court here.

Timothy Avington, a dental student, was charged with stealing the feline pet of P. M. Gaul, for use, it was said, in experimenting on the cat's teeth—they appeared to have cavities, it was testified.

Avington did not deny appropriating the cat, or that he had used it as a subject in connection with his dental studies. He mercifully chloroformed it before starting to fill the cavities, he said.

His attorney produced authorities to show, however, that a cat is not rated as property under the common law, and has not been made property by statute in this state, although dogs and other animals have been raised to the dignity of property value by statute.

"A cat is not property, therefore it cannot be stolen," Judge Bray ruled. "There is no such crime or offense as stealing a cat in the eyes of the law."

And now the city attorney's office and attaches at the district attorney's office are trying to find some way to prevent the wholesale theft of cats.

MISTAKES WE OFTEN MAKE

There is a proverb which reads—"The man who never made a mistake never made anything else." There is a great deal of truth in that saying. Sometimes we come across one of those perfect individuals who claims never to make mistakes, but more often we find that these very same persons not only make mistakes but very grave ones.

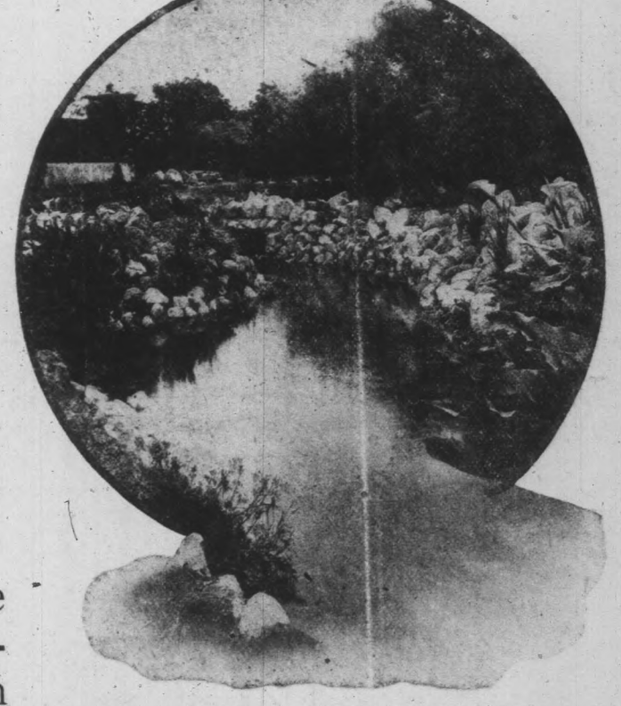
Without a Motor Car

A Sylvan Retreat Along the Way.

If you are one of the many newcomers in Glendale you may not know that you can take one of the most beautiful scenic rides in Southern California without a motor car.



A Scene That Will Always Linger In Your Memory.

You may not know that for a single street car fare you can ride through one of the most charming valleys to be found anywhere, past pretty mountain cottages and more pretentious country estates with views of mountain vistas, wooded dells and canyon streams unsurpassed.

The Glendale & Montrose railway traverses such a section, taking a course through the mountain pass known as beautiful Verdugo Canyon and passing near the old adobe that was the original ranch house on the Verdugo estate in the days of the Dons.

The road emerges from the canyon at Montrose where new views may be seen and then on to La Crescenta where from the heights you look upon scenes of unsurpassed beauty.

PROSPECTIVE ATHLETIC EVENT

Competitive Track Tournament for the Glendale Grammar Schools

One of the interesting athletic events in prospect is a track meet for grammar school pupils below the sixth grade at Intermediate. It will take place April 11 and 13 at the Intermediate and the following schools have entered: Pacific, Central Avenue, Colorado, Doran and Columbus. Cerritos Avenue is expected to enroll but has not yet done so.

The events will be divided into three classes, which is an innovation that will be watched with interest. The midget class will include boys of the fourth grade and below. The three events open to that competition will be: Standing broad jump; 40-yard dash; 4-man relay.

The unlimited class will be open to boys of the sixth grade and below. The events for this class will be: 50-yard dash; 60-yard dash; 80-yard dash; 4-man relay; running broad jump; high jump; indoor throw for distance; chinning; soccer kick for distance.

The special class will consist of boys from ungraded rooms who do not always have a chance to compete. Their events will be: 100-yard dash and soccer kick.

The prizes will be ribbons for the first, second, third and fourth places. There will also be a small banner for the school scoring the most points in each of these classes, and a large banner for the school scoring the most points in all classes combined.

Boys who are in the limelight as possible victors in running events are Tom Muff of Doran, Allen Lovell of Columbus and Frank Wyckoff of Broadway. Charles Hart of Colorado is looked upon as one of the best possibilities in the high jump. Pacific Avenue school has a great many good broad jumpers and Central Avenue seems to be good along the line of chinning and soccer kicking. If Cerritos enters Charley Steelman is due to win quite a few ribbons in various events as he is a pretty good all around athlete.

PLAN TO TERMINATE JOINT OWNERSHIP

When the city of Glendale consolidated with the city of Tropico, it found it took over a system of poles owned jointly by the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company and by the Southern California Edison company When Glendale purchased the electric distribution system from the Southern California Edison it became a half owner in the poles referred to. To end this partnership an agreement has been proposed to the board of trustees for the purpose of terminating the joint ownership. Under its terms the city of Glendale will acquire the sole ownership in one 30-foot pole, 35 35-foot poles, 76 40-foot poles and three 50-foot poles, and the telephone company will acquire the sole ownership of three 30-foot poles, 47 35-foot poles, 54 40-foot poles, three 45-foot poles and three 50-foot poles. The consideration in each instance is $672.74. This is in effect really the trading by the city of its undivided half interest of all the poles mentioned for the entire ownership of one-half of them. When this has been accomplished each party will pay the other for the use of these poles as may be used jointly, in accordance with authorized agreement therefor between the city and the telephone company.

The agreement was referred by the board of trustees to the city attorney at its last meeting for consideration and recommendation.

QUARTERLY MEETING OF HOME MISSIONS

The conference board of the Woman's Home Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal church of the Southern California conference will hold their quarterly meeting in First church, Glendale, Tuesday, April 5, begining at 9:30 a. m. The afternoon session will begin at 1:30.

There will be a demonstration program, conducted by the conference officers and secretaries of the departments.

This is an open meeting and all are welcome.

Bring your lunch and coffee will be served by the women of the church.

CITY CANNOT DENY ITS OWN ORDINANCES

Some time ago C. W. Ingledue applied for a special permit to remove a two-story building from 119 East Broadway to lot 16 in the W. S. Knott tract, this city. But the lot referred to is in fire district No. 2 in which a building of that type is forbidden under the present fire ordinance. Mr. Ingledue therefore applied to the board of trustees for a special permit but President Stephenson ruled the board could not violate its own ordinance. Inasmuch as the fire ordinance is before the board for amendment however, it was considered the fire zoning of district No. 2 might be changed and the Ingledue application therefore was referred to the committee of the whole for consideration.

SUBSTANTIAL ORDERS BEING PLACED

The enthusiasm with which the public has welcomed the new Dort is shown, according to C. A. Wishart & Son, Dort dealers, not only by the flattering comments of those visiting their display, but in the more substantial form of orders placed.

Mr. Paap, who resides at 1434 East California St., inspected the new car last Friday, when it was first placed on display. The following day Mr. Paap placed his order, accompanied by full payment, with Salesman H. N. Halfhill.

Geo. C. Fetters, of North Hardwick street, Eagle Rock, is another recent Dort purchaser.

DEVELOPMENT IN GLENDALE CITY

Mr. Warren of the Schimmelfeng Real Estate Company, who is a comparatively newcomer in this city, says that judged by his experience elsewhere, the development movement in Glendale will be towards the industrial center on San Fernando and towards Burbank. Some time, he declares, it will be so completely built up that the dividing line will be invisible, although there may not be municipal union.

Told me to write a rhyme,
Well here goes—April Fool."

ATHLETIC WORK OF G. U. H. S. GIRLS

Five interclass games in indoor baseball have been played by the girls of Glendale high. The sixth and completing round-robin meet will be played next Tuesday. The freshman girls have won against the sophomores, juniors and seniors thus far, and they are safe for the interclass championship. The juniors, who have won two games out of three, will be second. Tuesday's game will decide the score between the seniors and sophomores. It will be an interesting contest because the sophomores have been good sports, in spite of their reverses and good losers. From the winners in this series a team will be picked to play other schools. The game between seniors and freshmen Friday afternoon resulted in a score of 50 to 17 in favor of the freshmen.

The South Pasadena tennis team played the girls' tennis team of Glendale high Wednesday afternoon and the visiting girls won everything, except that Kathleen Campbell and Miss Cooper were not able to finish their singles match on account of darkness. The score stood one set each and in the third set the game was five-all, when play stopped. Miss Knight declares the defeat has been a good stimulant to her tennis players, as it has awakened them and aroused their ambition.

GLENDALE ATHLETIC CLUB IS ORGANIZED

The Glendale Athletic Club has been organized by H. E. Crane of 1414 San Fernando road and W. R. Cazart of 330 Oak street. The grounds are located at San Fernando road and Park avenue, where a grandstand has been erected. The diamond has been put in excellent condition. The Tropico baseball club will use the new grounds Sunday at 2:30 p.m., and will meet the Marble Gilding company. The Tropico line-up is as follows: C. Cruz, pitcher; McMullen, catcher; Crane, first base; Flanders, second base; Acosta, third base; Flores, shortstop; Gabaig, left field; Dodge, center, and Gabaig, right field. A fast game has been guaranteed. Everybody invited. Refreshments on the grounds.

RAILROAD CROSSING AT BRAND BLVD.

Points involved in the demand made upon the Southern Pacific railway for the paving of the west roadway of Brand boulevard over the railway's right of way, were thus set forth in the following communication addressed by City Manager Watson to members of the board of trustees at their meeting Thursday evening:

"In regard to paving west roadway of Brand boulevard over Southern Pacific tracks, pursuant to verbal understanding with your board we wrote W. H. Whalen, superintendent of Southern Pacific company, Los Angeles, calling attention to the necessity of this crossing being improved with a substantial pavement to take care of the large amount of traffic that would be carried by the new boulevard to Los Angeles lately completed. We stated to Mr. Whalen that we had been authorized by your board to say that in the event the Southern Pacific company decided to have this improvement done without legal proceedings, the city of Glendale would furnish plans and specifications therefor and will make no charge for inspection or for any other service the city engineering department might be called upon to render in that connection.

"In reply to this letter Mr. Whalen under date of February 17, 1921, states that the Southern Pacific will arrange to pave that portion between its tracks and rails and for two feet on each side thereof in accordance with agreement with the city of Glendale dated July 18, 1916, setting forth that 'It appears that the city of Los Angeles and the city of Glendale are paving those portions of Brand boulevard approaching our right of way on either side, the cost of such improvement is not being assessed against private property adjacent thereto. Therefore, it appears to me that this paving being done should be extended across our right of way and paid for in the same manner."

In reply to this under date of February 23, we wrote Mr. Whalen, as follows:

"As to the payment of the cost of paving the additional portion of the Southern Pacific right of way at this crossing, will say that we had in mind that this should also be paid for by the company inasmuch as the property holders adjacent to the right of way both within the city of Los Angeles and the city of Glendale are paying tthe cost of the pavement of the roadways to the Southern Pacific right of way.

"In my letter of the 11th instant, I referred to the city of Glendale putting in the approaches. I had reference to the replacement of paving that will be necessary in order to meet the present grade of the tracks approaching from the north. The property holders, however, pay for the original paving and I understand that the paving now being constructed within the city of Los Angeles is also being paid by the property holders.

"In reply to this we have received a letter from Mr. Whalen dated March 29, stating that he is now requesting the general manager for an appropriation of $2450 which is the estimated cost of paving the west side of Brand boulevard across the Southern Pacific right of way. The work that the company proposes consists of new ballasting, ties, rails, street pavement, curb and sidewalk. He requests us to advise him if it will be satisfactory to us if they pave only the west side of the boulevard at this time.

"In view of the fact that the larger portion of the traffic will be carried by the west roadway, I would recommend that Mr. Whalen be informed that the pavement of the west crossing as proposed by him will be satisfactory for the present, urging that the installation be made without delay, inasmuch as the present temporary pavement cannot be kept in satisfactory condition to carry the heavy traffic that is passing over this crossing at this time.

"I would also suggest that the matter of establishing and maintaining automatic flagman at this crossing be taken up with proper authorities; possibly this will have to be passed upon by the railroad commission as to whom shall pay the cost thereof."

Consideration of the matter was referred to the committee of the whole at its special meeting Monday night, and the city manager was instructed to invite Chairman Hayward of the chamber of commerce highways committee to be present and talk on his subway project.

"I was. The way I kep' shovin' money into the window to see the same old tricks has kep' me mervelin' at myself more than I ever did at the elephants."

FUNERAL SERVICES FOR MRS. SEARING

Funeral services over the remains of Mrs. David Searing, nee Catherine Lord, will be held Monday afternoon at the Little Church of the Flowers in Forest Lawn Memorial park. She had a large circle of friends in Glendale where she attended high school for three years and was a prominent figure in the social circles in which she moved. Her mother was active here in district and local P. T. A. work. Her untimely death is particularly sad as she was a happy young wife, about to become a mother, and was her parents' only child. The bullet wound which was the cause of death was due to an accident in handling the revolver which had been given her by her mother for protection when she chanced to be alone at night, as she was very nervous following a murder which occurred in Fullerton not long ago. The revolver had just been cleaned by Mr. Searing and the supposition is that the young woman did not know it was loaded. As she was not in view when the accident happened no one knows exactly what occurred.

RELAY CARNIVAL AT INTERMEDIATE

An Event New to Intermediate Pupils Will Be Staged Next Wednesday

Next Wednesday afternoon on the Intermediate field a relay carnival is to be staged. This is an event new to Intermediate boys and is being put on at the suggestion of N. R. Whytock, their coach, because of the big interest in track work the boys have shown.

Four boys, Lee Shannon, Elmer Muff, Arthur Cressey and John Lovell have been chosen captains because they were considered four of the best track athletes in the school. Each of these boys will pick a team and from the teams they pick the various relay teams will be made up. Girls under Miss Sinclair will compete in the same manner. Several of the grammar schools are also entering for the one event open to them, a relay race. The program will be as follows and each distance mentioned will be divided among four runners:

Medley Relay—One runner runs 50 yards; the second, 100 yards; the third, 220 yards; the fourth, 440 yards.

220-Yard relay; 440-yard relay; 880-yard relay; mile relap; 2-mile relay.

Girls' events will include: 4-girl relay, each to run 55 yards; 6-girl relay, each to run 110 yards; 2-girl relay, each to run 220 yards.

Grammar school 4-man relay, each running 110 yards. Ribbons will be given to each contestant in the winning teams in each race.

Player pianos at the price of good uprights on Shu-Bar Music Shop's great sale. Open every evening. 712 East Broadway.—Advertisement.

OVERTIME USE OF PUBLIC SCHOOLS

The community appears to be waking up to the value of the high school departments and athletic courts to the general public. Principal Moyse states that three or four groups are either now using or preparing to use the gymnasium after hours. These include the Baraca class of the First Methodist church, the Dynamos class of the Glendale Presbyterian church, and a group of ex-service men. The field is also used one night a week by the Glendale company of National Guards.

Last night, members of the the Carpenter's Union met at the manual arts building for action looking toward the organization of night classes in mechanical drawing, under the instruction of Walter Gorman.

The Board of trustees has no allowance in its budget out of which it can pay for an instructor, so the men are arranging to provide their own teacher and the board will give them the use of the rooms and equipment. It is probable that an effort will be made to organize a Saturday afternoon class in addition to the evening class. As the woodworking rooms are not lighted at night, the drawing classes will probably have to meet in the rooms of the art department. A number of the younger members of the union also are anxious to secure special instruction in cabinet making.

Mr. Moyse expects that in the budget for next year, because of the interest now shown, provision will be made for night schools. Heretofore the rapid growth of the school and the lack of definite information as to how many persons were interested in night schools, has led the trustees to pass the matter up.

VACCINE IN WHOOPING COUGH

Reports on the use of vaccine in 408 cases of whooping cough have been collected by an Italian physician, showing excellent results in a large proportion, but in 100 other cases there was no apparrent benefit. Improvement, with a marked lessening of disappearance of the spasms, was the rule when the injections were made in the first ten days of the disease. In advanced stages, a few cases showed great benefit, but improvement was mostly only transient.

He says the tabernacle he is now superintending the construction of is much larger than that built six years ago, just west of the Baptist church. Relays of men from the different churches will work on the big building next week, while the ladies furnish lunches for them.

PLANS FOR CHAMBER OF COMMERCE BLOCK

A meeting of the chamber of commerce committee on permanent headquarters was held Friday at the Goodyear Cafe on Central avenue at noon, to discuss the project broached at the meeting of the directorate last Tuesday, to form a holding company for the erection of a building in the heart of the business district to provide accommodations for the chamber of commerce under a lease to that organization. The committee includes Jesse Smith, J. G. Huntley, C. D. Lusby, V. M. Hollister and Owen Emery.

PYTHIAN SISTERS' JOLLY EVENING

So great a success was the evening given by members of the La Halla Temple, Pythian Sisters, at the K. of P. hall, Friday evening, that the question on every tongue was: "When will you have another stunt like this?"

To begin with there was a short business session. Then members of Van Nuys temple put on an Irish Minstrel show which was much enjoyed. Following that, box luncheons were auctioned off, the sale making a great deal of sport. The balance of the evening was devoted to dancing. Besides the Van Nuys delegation there was quite a crowd from Los Angeles and Pasadena, and the floor was well filled.

Substantial Orders Being Placed

The enthusiasm with which the public has welcomed the new Dort is shown, according to C. A. Wishart & Son, Dort dealers, not only by the flattering comments of those visiting their display, but in the more substantial form of orders placed.

Mr. Paap, who resides at 1434 East California St., inspected the new car last Friday, when it was first placed on display. The following day Mr. Paap placed his order, accompanied by full payment, with Salesman H. N. Halfhill.

Geo. C. Fetters, of North Hardwick street, Eagle Rock, is another recent Dort purchaser.
